Worship Thought

Testimonies for the Church Volume Six

The Observance of the Sabbath pg. 368

Bear in mind that the work of restoring is to be our burden. This work is not to be done in a proud, officious, masterly way. Do not say, by your manner, "I have the power, and I will use it," and pour out accusations upon the erring one. Do your restoring "in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted." The work set before us to do for our brethren is not to cast them aside, not to press them into discouragement or despair by saying: "You have disappointed me, and I will not try to help you." He who sets himself up as full of wisdom and strength, and bears down upon one who is oppressed and distressed and longing for help, manifests the spirit of the Pharisee, and wraps himself about with the robe of his own self-constituted dignity

Doxology

Open our eyes, Lord, We want to see Jesus,
To reach out and touch Him. And say that we love Him.
Open our ears, Lord, And help us to listen
Open our eyes, Lord, We want to see Jesus.
